

NICARAGUA SHG EP SAN JUAN RIO COCO

Notes: BLACK CURRANT, CLEAN, CITRUS, MILK CHOCOLATE

ORIGIN INFORMATION

Grower: Cooperativa Multisectorial Cultivando con Calidad en San Juan del Rio Coco
Variety: Caturra
Region: San Juan del Rio Coco, Madriz, Nicaragua
Harvest: December-April
Altitude: 1,100 – 1,350 meters
Soil: Clay minerals
Process: Fully washed and dried on patios and on elevated tables.
Certifications: Conventional

BACKGROUND DETAILS

UCA San Juan del Rio Coco is based in the northern highlands of Nicaragua. The coop has a membership of 8 cooperatives and 430 individual farmers of which a quarter are women. UCA San Juan is all about high quality coffee. Their efforts and resources are spent in taking care of the entire production of this small group of producers to ensure greater international market share, competitive pricing and quality control.