PERU ORGANIC EL PALTO SHB EP coffee is sourced from family-owned farms organized around the Asociación de Productores Cafetaleros Juan Marco, EL Palto (JUMARP), and it is also known as simply "El Palto". Located in northern Peru in the Amazonas Andes, this association began with just 35 small farmers in 2003. Today there are 169 members of which 40 are women with approximately 550 hectares of Organic and Fair Trade Certified Coffees in production.

Like their male counterparts, female members are represented in the Association Board of Directors, whose mission is to increase production and profitability in specialty coffee to increase each member family's income.
